

ELECTION OF COUNCILLORS VOTING DAY - 4 MAY 2017

Local councils need active, interested and committed people to serve and get involved in their work. You need to work hard to enable Atworth Parish attain its needs and aspirations, and to access other agencies to help achieve this. It is hugely important to engage with your community in a positive and proactive way. You need dedication and drive to ensure the very best for the Parish.

Do you have the initiative, enthusiasm and the free time to become a Parish Councillor in order to support and carry out best outcomes for the majority of parishioners in Atworth?

If you have, now is the time to apply and submit your nomination as a candidate before the nomination closing date of 4 April 2017.

There are 9 Parish Councillor seats to be contested. Full details may be found on the Wiltshire Council web site at:
